JA: I will be there Thursday at....is there anything else I can do? I mean what about – I thought about breaking your window actually but I thought your alarm would go off.

RB: No, no, no don't.....you gotta be careful what you say on the phone – on this phone too but I know they ain't (inaudible) but look, but um....

JA: The cat – I am worried about your kitty cat.

RB: Oh that's what you're talkin' about? Yeah could do that but I don't know how 'cause that's the only way.....um.....you gonna get to him really, but my alarm gonna go off too. You hear me?

JA: Well if they don't – if they don't contact you they can't do anything to me right?

RB: The police will come out, yeah the police will come out. They ain't have no way to get in contact with me to even verify anything.

JA: So what would happen to me if I did that?

RB: I don't know, police would probably come. Probably think you are trying to break in.

JA: Well I may do that...can you give me – can you give me a key tomorrow?

RB: Huh?

JA: Can you give me a key tomorrow when I see you?

RB: I don't have my keys with me. I don't have no property with me right now they...

JA: Can you sign a paper?

RB: Huh?

JA: Can you sign a paper or anything? I mean I don't know what to do about that cat because I'm really thinking of breaking....

RB: I know, I just hope...

JA: ....I may break the window and then board it up.

RB: Yeah you could do that, yeah go ahead and do that.

JA: Because I can even have it repaired I mean 'cause that's....I can't....

RB: Well its (inaudible) it's going already (inaudible) then my whole house is open so anybody can just come in there you know what I'm saying?

JA: Not if I fix it.

RB: My alarm ain't gonna be set again.

JA: Okay well we'll talk more about that tomorrow what to do 'cause...

RB: (inaudible) yeah I just hope – I just hope.....I just hope a.....it might be alright.

JA: He won't live for seven days.

RB: You don't think so?

JA: No they can't go more than – actually only four days that's why I was gonna break the window. Four days without water.

RB: Alright you going – I mean can you do that and then just stay at my house?

JA: I could yes, but it will be after I see you tomorrow.

RB: Alright there's a window already – there's already busted around there where the hot tub is. But you have to climb in there without getting cut, how you gonna do that?

JA: I could – I can do that and then I will just call for a window repair or I can even.....find the glass and do it myself, I've fixed many windows but we'll talk more – unfortunately I shouldn't have said that right?

RB: Well nah, nah, you're alright. It's my house. That's probably the only place.....

JA: But I am going to be there tomorrow at 12:30, they said that I can see you, I had to call this morning for that appointment. I will be there at 12:30, I've got to see you at 12:30, I have to be there at 11:30.

RB: Okay. Yeah that might – that might be the only way – that might be the only way to get in there 'cause that alarm gonna definitely go off though.

JA: Well we'll just see how good your alarm system is.

RB: Oh its gonna go off, the only way you can – only way you can um....oh you know what? If you go through that one window and don't go in the living room and don't go upstairs it won't go off.

JA: Okay the one by the hot tub?

RB: Nah but you know what it is, its gonna go off, it is gonna go off 'cause I got one in the um.....I might have one in the kitchen, like one the kitchen window, you know the motion detectors?

JA: Yes. But what about beside the hot tub?

RB: Yeah that room is up – it's not in that room but I think the motion detector is gonna go off once you go in through the kitchen, I think there might be a.....motion detector in the kitchen I think.

JA: Well if I just well.....well I'll just have to see what they do to me, I mean they'll have to get a hold of you. Maybe you can write a piece of paper that I have permission to be there and you can give it to me tomorrow.

RB: I don't know, yeah probably.

JA: We'll think of something tonight, you think of something, but are you really doing okay?

RB: Yeah I'm doing alright, yeah, everything good. I ain't – I need a damn cigarette but....huh?

JA: You can't even smoke?

RB: Hell no.

JA: I was gonna say don't they bring you – you want me to bring you cigarettes or snacks? Can I bring you anything like that or put money on the – on that place where you can go get your own snacks?

RB: No you can't even do that. It ain't gonna be that long. I can do another – I can do another day. Yeah call the public defender right?

JA: Okay.

RB: And a.....oh okay....another way it won't go off if you go through the window where the washing machine at, you know where I'm talking about?

JA: Yes.

RB: You know where I'm talking about?
